

LESSON 2: What is the Gospel?

I. What is the Gospel

We need to preach a “full gospel”.

A. If is defined clearly by our apostle for the age of Grace.

MAIN PASSAGE: I Corinthians 15:1-4

Who preached it?

What is the Gospel that is recorded in I Corinthians 15:1-4?

What is the title of the Gospel in I Corinthians 1:18?

The gospel is a package that keeps three things in mind. What are these three things?

Why is it important to preach a “full gospel”?

B. It fulfills Old Testament types.

The Passover types the _____ .

The feast of Unleavened Bread represents the _____ .

Feast of Firstfruits points to the _____ .

He died (paid the penalty for our sins), was buried (laid our sins to rest), and rose again (provided for new life).

C. It follows the Pauline pattern.

MAIN PASSAGE: Acts 13:26-39

What three elements are present in Paul's first recorded speech?

What is the only requirement?

What is the result of faith (without works) in the gospel?

We should be careful in the words we choose when presenting the gospel. Do you agree?

Who are trespasses being held against? Why?(HINT: 2 Cor. 5:19)

What two barriers still keep us from God?

ACTS 17:31-34 The resurrection. (I Cor. 15:13-19)

D. It holds the key to the Christian life.

MAIN PASSAGE: Colossians 2:6

How do we receive the Lord Jesus and how do we walk in Him?

What is the key to the Christian life?

ROMANS 6:1-7

What is the topic here?

What does Paul take us back to for Christian living?

I CORINTHIANS 1:1-2

What can we learn from Paul's opening address to the carnal Corinthians?

Once you put your faith in Christ, God never calls us a _____ again. Instead, we are called _____.

In his conclusion, we are urged, "Let's preach a 'full gospel.'" What two reasons does he give?